Jack Plathe administered the Oath of Office for Rosemary Bormann of the Kossuth County Recorder's Office and Marg Lichter notarized this document.

Public Discussion and Committee Reports were held followed by Drainage.

Drew Fett was present to explain what he has done so far to clean up the property in Sexton owned by his brother Alan Fett. Todd Holmes, Kossuth County Attorney and Jack Bradley, Kossuth County Sanitarian were also present. Drew spoke about his future plans for clean up of this property and explained that he has talked to Spray Seal about obtaining some samples to determine if there is any asbestos in the building. The Board was open to his plan and explained that they will make a formal decision next week on this.

Motion by McGregor and 2nd by Besch to approve the rules presented by Dona Nielsen regarding 24/7 Case Management on-call coverage and to proceed with contracting with IME (Iowa Medicaid Enterprise) to provide this service. Ayes: all Nays: none Motion carried unanimous.

The update for the Courtroom Accessibility Project is to have Amber Garman call Rick Dean and let him know that they are fine with the changes that need to be made and to go ahead and proceed with this plan.

Jack Plathe signed and dated four copies of the Construction Drawings for the U.S. Cellular Telecommunications Tower. Amber Garman, Kossuth County Auditor will keep one of the drawings on file and put the other three copies in the mail using the self addressed postage paid envelope.

Amber Garman, Kossuth County Auditor spoke to the Board about a request received from a taxpayer for the Monthly Reports for KCEDC. Amber Garman explained that she does not have these reports filed in her office and she is not clear on whether or not this is public record. Don McGregor will go to KCEDC and request these reports and will file them in the Kossuth County Auditor's Office so that they are available upon request.

On motion adjournment was taken until October 6, 2009.
